Rates on franc cheques opened at $1.22 to the American dollar, up 1/16 cent from yesterday's closing quotation. Italian lire opened at 13.22 up 1/16 cent. Forward bill foreign exchange advanced a more settled tone. Demand sterling was steady at $3.39. France was quoted at 16.52 and lire at 19.52. ## PLAN FINANCIAL CAUCUS TO END EXCHANGE CHAOS

Paris, France, Feb. 6.—Proposals that an international financial conference be called immediately to consider measures for the relief of the international financial situation, filed support in French government circles. The plan has been suggested by Great Britain and is said to be the outgrowth of the recent bankers' conference at Amsterdam, at which the situation was considered with the

RAPS U. S. CIVIL SERVICE SYSTEM

Washington, D. C., Feb. 6.—The policy of retaining old civil service employees in their position long past the retirement age has come so far that some of them actually have to be carried to their desks, senator Charles McNary, Republican of South Dakota, declared yesterday in discussion of the civil service retirement bill. Some of the employees are more than 60 years old, he said, and long ago reached the age of 50, efficiency. The bill fixes the retirement age at 60 and carries a maximum annuity of $700 and a minimum of $150. McNary's conclusion that international action was necessary.

Further participation by the United States in such a conference is expected by French financiers. French opinion generally is not inclined by theories which attribute the exchange situation to speculation and other causes. It is pretty well recognized that the cause is a credit crisis and financiers consider without movement that a grave phase of the situation was opened with the shutting off by the United States of credits to cover French purchases.

MRS. MOORE HAS 20-LB. GAIN

Recovers strength and sleeps soundly since taking Tanlac.

"Since I began taking Tanlac I am not only in perfect health, but have gained twenty pounds in weight," said Mrs. O. E. Moore, of 1515 Harrison Street, Kansas City, Mo., recently. "Eighteen months ago I suffered a nervous breakdown and became so weak I could not do my housework or even walk up or downstairs. I had severe headaches nearly all the time and such awful dizzy spells it was with difficulty I could keep from falling, and on three occasions did. The doctor said I was doing very well, but I was nearly impossible for me to eat anything at all, and I could not sleep. My appetite improved and I lost weight until I was scarcely more than a frame and just became weaker and weaker every day. My nerves were in an awful condition and it was almost impossible for me to get any sleep, as I could lie awake half the night every night. I had taken many different treatments and medicines for my troubles, but none of them did me any good, and as I had read so much about the good Tanlac was doing for other people, I decided to try it, and I had not taken over half a bottle when I began to feel better. My appetite improved and my nerves were in better condition. I continued taking it until now I can sleep as peacefully as I wish, and I feel like a new woman. I never have a headache now or those dizzy spells and those pains in the region of my heart have disappeared completely. I have regained my strength until I can do all my own housework for my house of six rooms with the greatest ease, and, in fact, I don't remember to have ever felt better in my life. I look upon Tanlac as a remarkable medicine and am more than glad to say a good word for it."

Denies Tiger Is Not Wanted To Visit Egypt

Paris, France, Feb. 6.—Telegrams threatening former premier Clemenceau to visit Egypt did not emanate from the Egyptian delegation here, according to Said Zaki Pasha, head of the Egyptian mission to the peace conference. "Clemenceau came here most courteously," said Zaki Pasha in an interview published in the Temps, "and assured me he was going to Egypt as a friend of that country. If circumstances compelled the conference to insert in the treaty of Versailles a clause recognizing the British protectorate over Egypt, Mr. Clemenceau remains a sincere friend of Egypt."

Joint Ticket Office May Be Kept Operating

El Paso, Feb. 6.—El Paso is making plans for the return of the joint ticket office. A meeting of the directors of the union passenger lines was held this week to make plans for taking back the property and a conference is to be held soon with officials for the same purpose. It is quite possible that the present arrangement for the joint operation of a city passenger and ticket office will be continued, as the work has been very satisfactory in El Paso, because, quite largely, of the fact that experienced men were retained in the work.

Cocoon Oil Fine For Washing Hair

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Cocoon oil, which is pure and entirely greaseless, is much better than anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair. Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two cocoon oil shampoos will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. The latter rinses out easily, and removes every particle of dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage. You can get Cocoon oil shampoo at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months.—Adv.

DOWN IN BED AND SO WEAK

Lady Suffered Terribly for Eight Weeks But Her Case Showed Wonderful Improvement After Taking Cardui.

Johnson City, Tenn.—Mrs. M. R. Scott, living near this town, states: "About three years ago I was down in bed . . . terrible and so weak I couldn't bear the sight of food. This condition continued for about eight weeks . . . I thought I was going to die, and knew I must get something to do me some good. I had heard all my life of Cardui and the good results obtained from its use. So I decided to try it. After about a half bottle of Cardui my appetite improved, then I was less nervous. I kept it up until I had taken five bottles, and such an improvement! I gained flesh and now am the picture of health, due, I believe, solely to the use of Cardui. I am the mother of ten children and feel well and strong." Cardui is a mild, medicinal tonic for women. It has stood the most severe of all tests—the test of time, having been in use for over forty years. It is composed of purely vegetable ingredients, which have been found to help build up the vitality, tone up the nerves, and strengthen the womanly constitution. Try Cardui.—Adv.
